OFFICIAL PAPER.

The notations Col. Ryan and 250 men said to be encamped on Gardner's Island, and are supplied with provisions from New York.

A Des Moines dispatch says that the greater portion of the wheat crop of the lower Des Moines valley is in shock, and is not so badly injured as was at first supposed.

The vicinity of Utica, N. Y., was visited by a very severe storm on the 8th. Fifty years has not seen the like of it. Much damage was done.

The President has assured prominent Mississippians that the election there and in Texas shall be fairly and impartially conducted.

The President is urged to fix a day in September for the election in Mississippi, and it is thought he will accede to the request.

Sender and Stokes are both said to be confident of election to the office of governor of Tennessee. It is hoped that the result will show that at least one of them is over sanguine.

Two-thirds of the thirty-five hundred newspapers in the United States are Republican in politics.—Republican Exchange.

That accounts for the deplorable state of public morals.

Gen. Banks having failed to receive a foreign appointment, with the privilege of traveling in Europe at government expense, has gone abroad on his own hook. He will no doubt represent the nation largely wherever he may go, but without any special commission.

The Tennessee canvas becomes livelier and livelier every day. The candidates and newspapers fling about such epithets as "defamer," "blackguard," "slanderer," "wretch," "villain," "scoundrel," "fiend incarnate," "diabolical depths of devilry," etc., etc., as lively as snow-flakes in a snow storm, or beer-drinks at a German sangerfest. And it is not a good year for sayers in Tennessee either!—Chicago Post.

C. W. Woolley, of Kentucky, and of Washington notoriety in connection with Butler's little congressional inquiry, has threatened to horse-whip Halsted, one of the editors of the Cincinnati Commercial. Mr. H. publishes a card in which he bluntly says: "Mr. Woolley will, doubtless, have cultivated taste to recognize my wishes in this particular; and, when he finds me worthy the ceremony of undergoing the horse-whipping, it will be a pleasure to have his society where the exercises will not be interrupted."

The St. Louis committee has made a final decision not to charter the propeller Wilmington for a trip from New York, but do not abandon the idea of direct trade with New York and the other points. Owing to the difficulty of obtaining vessels adapted to the trade, it urges that a bonus of $20,000 be raised and given to any one who will build an iron vessel at that point that shall meet, in point of draft, capacity, and other requirements, what is needed for a successful seagoing and river steamer. It believes that vessels in every way suitable for this trade can be built, and is extremely anxious that some ship-builder shall inaugurate the movement.

The London Times regards the postponement of the debate on the Alabama claims with satisfaction. Their introduction at the present moment would serve no good purpose. The general sense of uneasiness with respect to the subject on both sides necessitates an interval of a considerable period before it is resumed. The debates could be useful if Parliament disapproved the conduct of the ministry or wished to instruct in regard to future negotiations. But there is no dissatisfaction. The only charges against Lord Stanley and Clarendon is that they were too yielding. But the Commons were not likely to advise the withdrawing of concessions made, nor were they prepared to lay down a plan for future negotiations in anticipation of such results from discussion which were most important.

Another reason for declining discussion is due regard for national dignity, which forbids our approaching the American government on these questions. Public opinion is unanimous on this point. The late treaty was virtually American, for it was made, altered and re-altered by Seward and Johnson. It was rejected as much through party antipathies as from discontent with its provisions. It was probably foredoomed, and whatever its provisions might have been, in all likelihood would have met the same fate. England is ready to listen to any proposals from America, but to display a desire to receive them favorably would tend to increase, not lessen, the demand. When Mr. Motley considers the feeling of America is such that a treaty consistent with the honor of England will satisfy Americans, he may address the government for a renewal of negotiations. Such treaty will have a chance of acceptance. The prevalence of more moderate views in America is gratifying. It is to be hoped that the question of the Queen's neutrality proclamation, which has dropped out of sight, will be tacitly abandoned. This favorable change is owing to the discovery that England will not concede beyond a certain point, and that this resolution is not likely to be shaken. The Star also expresses satisfaction at the postponement of the discussion. A mercenary come weaker, and her desire to reduce the burden of public debt stronger. The best thing for both countries to do is to hold their peace for awhile.

THE SITUATION IN FRANCE.

THE LATEST FROM CUBA.

A DESPERATE CHARACTER ARRESTED.

Munificent Requests to Public Charities.

LONDON, July 9.—The ministerial crisis in France increases in intensity. The constitutional opposition in the Corps Legislatif declare their ultimatum to be the retirement of the minister of state, M. Rouher. While the Emperor desires his retirement, he is reluctant to dismiss him on account of his ability and his devotion to the imperial government. M. Rouher's failure to comply with the wish of the Emperor, and tender his resignation, is severely criticised. Yesterday the proprietor of one of the leading journals said to him: "M. Rouher, your time has come, clear out." "I know it," answered M. Rouher, "but my wife won't resign." This is literally true. Madame Rouher objects to giving up the honors which she receives at the palace as the wife of the chief of the Emperor's ministry. The Emperor will wait while before insisting upon the unavoidable resignation until this little domestic trouble of his minister can be arranged. The majority of the assembly are opposed to the propositions demanded by the members of the left centre, which are as follows: First, a responsible ministry; 2d, autonomy of the legislative assembly. The Emperor is therefore obliged to temporize in the majority which he does not wish to open a door, but the present dead lock must end in the course of a week.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—According to what is understood to have taken place in the cabinet to-day, the election in Mississippi will probably not occur until the 4th Tuesday in November, after the elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio. Nothing definite transpired regarding the Texas election, but it is thought the day will be equally remote.

HAVANA, July 9.—The government estimates the expenditures for July at two millions, so far. The government embargoed 540 estates, of which twenty have realized seventy-five thousand for the state. The rest are in process of liquidation.

Count Valmaseda writes that the civil authority has been re-established in the jurisdictions of Manzanilla, Bagamo and Jigüera, and the travel is now safe.

Capt. General de Rodas has granted the correspondent of the Associated Press free use of the telegraph, allowing him always to report facts regarding military movements, even when unfavorable to the government.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Susan Larveroux, aged 70 years, was killed last evening by West Third street, by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Deane, in a fit of insanity.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 10.—The will of the late John Clarke of Northampton gives $10,000 to various charitable institutions; $30,000 to his relatives; $10,000 to the Northampton public library; $10,000 to the Clarke institute for deaf mutes; and the town.

JACKSON, Miss., July 8.—A new organ of the national republican party made its appearance to-day. It hoists the name of Judge Dent for Governor. The Salutory says it will be truly national in all its aims, yielding hearty and unqualified support to the administration of President Grant and urging strict adherence to the reconstruction acts. It will endeavor to bring about such wise and reasonable action on the part of the people of Mississippi, as will place them in full accord with Congress and the nation and will advocate unity and peace and national amity upon the basis of civil and political equality to all.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Mr. Bowen, one of the proprietors in a firm of insurance brokers, absconded a few nights since with a considerable amount of funds belonging to the firm, and taking with him another man's wife.

A prominent board of trade operator is said to have left the city, leaving a large amount of unliquidated liabilities behind him.

A notorious bank robber, Joe Brown, one of the most desperate characters in the West, who recently escaped from the penitentiary at Joliet, where he was confined for burglary committed in this city, was arrested here last night.

A Denver dispatch says a great fire is raging in the mountains immediately surrounding Georgetown, Col. It is spreading with fearful rapidity, and will do immense damage to the timber.

The United States geological expedition under Dr. Hogen arrived last evening.
